College Launches School of The Air Over WAPI

Courses In Art and Music Are First To Be Offered Listeners All Over State

Alabama College this week is launching over WAPI, Birmingham, the Alabama College School of the Air. The programs of the Alabama College School of the Air fall during the school day at 2 p.m., and their appeal is for classroom groups ranging from the fifth through the eighth grades.

At present two courses are offered to Alabama School children. One of these is offered each Tuesday by the Art Department of Alabama College, and is called "Art for Fun." The second program, called "Learning the Language of Music," is a music participation program in which the young listeners learn to read melodies, become familiar with many folk songs, and play a game known as musical shorthand which trains them to recognize beat and pitch. The music period comes each Thursday. The art course is under the direction of Miss Dawn Kennedy, head of the art department, and Mrs. Josephine Waller has prepared the course known as "Learning the Language of Music."

Those who plan the programs at Alabama College also prepare teacher helps and mimeographed directions for making the best possible use of the studies before, during, and after the broadcast. Alabama College hopes, at the end of the school year, to have an exhibit of the art work done by the Alabama school children who have listened in, and it is also hoped, when the music program has become firmly established, to climax the course by holding a music festival for several hundred school children who have been taking part.

Use of time on the air by Alabama College is simplified, since it is a part owner of Radio Station WAPI, the medium of the broadcast, and one of the most powerful stations in the South. Letters have been sent to school principals in Alabama. They are being asked to bring the Alabama College School of the Air to the attention of those teachers likely to be interested in the work that is offered. The college also reaches the Alabama school teacher through its monthly news letter and through stories in the press.

In the first year of its history, the Alabama College School of the Air gives promise of finding for itself a definite place of usefulness in the field of radio education in the South.

Automobiles Involved In Wreck Friday

Automobiles belonging to Postmaster Reuben Lowe, of Clanton, and mail carrier, Kirk Lucas, of Montevallo, were involved in a wreck on Holloway Hill last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Lucas was driving his car home after having made his daily trip on Route 1.

The Lowe car was driven by the postmaster's daughter and was coming to Montevallo for the football game.

The collision occurred as the Lowe car came into the Calera highway from the Jemison cut-off. Both cars were damaged and some of the occupants slightly injured.

Mr. Lowe came here to settle the damages and it was not long until he and Mr. Lucas congratulated each other that the results were no worse and each went his way—nearly rejoicing, but thankful.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Rev. John R. Turner, rector of the Church of the Advent, Birmingham, will hold an evening service in the chapel of Calkins Hall, Sunday night at 7:45. All are cordially invited to attend.

Earl Larimore, above, famous Broadway actor, will appear opposite Eva LeGallienne in "Hedda Gabler" on November 20, at Palmer Hall. This presentation will be the third number of the Concert and Lecture Series.

Armistice Program At Palmer Hall

The Armistice Day program sponsored by the American Legion will be held at Palmer Hall Saturday, November 11, beginning at 10:30 a.m. Alabama College, as has been customary in former years, will cooperate in this program. The public is invited.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Hon. R. H. Mangum, of the publicity and public relations department of Alabama Power Company. Several music numbers will be supplied by the Montevallo High School Band, directed by Mr. York Kildea.

Mrs. A. E. Baumgartner is chairman of a committee Legion Auxiliary in arranging the program of exercises.

Terracing Controls Erosion, Says Agent

Erosion control is the most vital problem on the farms of Shelby County today, and proper terracing is the most effective means of controlling erosion, along with small grains and winter legumes.

Terracing is one of the highest paid land building practices under the AAA program, as you will recall the rate of pay for completed terraces is 75 cents per hundred feet.

We are doing a good job of planting vetch, Austrian peas, and crimson clover but not doing so much in terracing the land.

A good terrace must control the water and be wide enough to cultivate, with all low places filled in and proper outlets constructed.

Good terraces can be built with the power outfits in the county, or with a tractor, or by mule power on the farm. All terraces on the farm may qualify for payment by making them wider and converting them into the Nichols type of terrace.

We especially hope that every farmer who has not already qualified for his land building payment will do so between now and January 1.

If we can be of help to you in your terracing program, call on us.—A. A. Lauderdale, County Agent.

New Shiloh Church To Open Sunday

Opening services are announced for next Sunday at the Shiloh Baptist Church (Negro) in Montevallo. The occasion will be the opening of the new building which has been constructed in place of the one destroyed by the storm last April.

The program will begin at 9:30 in the morning, with sessions scheduled for afternoon and night.

Rev. W. H. Harrison, pastor, and Deacon J. E. Peoples, master of ceremonies, extend an invitation to all white friends of the congregation to attend.

Presbyterian Students Organize Chapter

The Presbyterian students of Alabama College have elected officers for a local chapter of the Presbyterian Student Association. Installation services will follow a supper in the church Sunday night, October 29, at 6:30.

P. S. A. meets every Sunday night at seven o'clock in the church. A social meeting will be held at least once a month.

Under the leadership of Marguerite Denny, of Wadley, the P. S. A. hopes to bring all Presbyterian students closer to the church. Other officers are vice-president, May Lyman Woods; secretary, Joan Franklin; and treasurer, Mittie Byrd Dismukes.

Chairmen of the various committees are: Membership, Lucy Pegues; Finance, Pauline Collum; Music, Aline Jones; Project, Marguerite Atchison; Dramatics, Carolyn Norris; Publicity, Peggy Kirk; Social, Carolyn Berry; Program, Delle Mullen; State Convention, Imo Heacock; and Publications, Laura Frances Jones.

Faculty advisers are Miss Margaret Florey, Miss Helen Parks, and Mr. W. J. Kennerly.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING

The Shelby County Sunday School Association will meet with the Columbiana Baptist Church, November 7, at 7:30 p.m., according to Mr. A. C. Adams, association superintendent. All Sunday Schools are invited to attend the program, which has been arranged as follows:

7:30—Devotional.

7:45—Report of business.

8:10—Program, Mrs. Luther Curlee, Mr. G. C. Burks, Mr. W. W. Elliott.

9:00—Adjournment.

PANCAKE SUPPER

The Montevallo Girl Scout Council is serving pancakes and waffles at the Little House today from 5 to 8 p.m. A limited number will be admitted every 30 minutes. You are cordially invited.

BAPTIST CHURCH

"The Christian Attitude Toward Money" will be the pastor's theme at the Sunday morning service. At 7:30 p.m. a play, "Two Masters," will be given by a group of students. This play was given last week end at the Baptist Student Convention at Howard College and was so fine that the same students have been asked to give it for us. The Sunday School hour is 9:45 a.m. The Baptist Training Union meets at 6:45 p.m.

Relief Agencies To Aid Farmers During Winter, Says President

Washington, Oct. 24 — President Roosevelt said today three Federal agencies would aid an estimated 115,000 farm families in drouth and flood areas without seeking additional funds at the special session of Congress.

Officials of the agencies—the Disaster Loan Corporation, Farm Security Administration, and Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation—reported they had sufficient funds to carry on until the regular session of Congress in January.

These agencies will extend loans and provide food to needy farmers under a program drawn up at a White House conference attended by a committee of senators and representatives from drouth and flood-stricken areas.

Senator Bankhead (D.), Alabama, chairman of the congressional committee, said the White House conference disclosed that the Disaster Loan Corporation had an unexpended and unobligated $20,000,000 in flood relief funds which could be used to aid families in the flood-affected areas of Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

The Farm Security Administration

Bulgarian peasants who live within the shadows of the country's largest city but who remain untouched by city influences is the subject of a publication this month by Dr. Irwin T. Sanders, associate professor of sociology at Alabama College. Before coming to Alabama, Dr. Sanders was for three years dean of the American College, Sofia Bulgaria — so he writes with authority.

The monograph, entitled "The Social Contacts of a Bulgarian Village," is printed in the current number of "Rural Sociology."

Alabama Soldier Receives Honor

Private First Class Leland E. Gibson, the son of Mrs. W. J. Gibson of Centreville, who is a member of Company B, 16th Infantry, Fort Jay, New York, is a member of Chief of Infantry's combat squad for the year 1939. This combat squad is designated as the best all-around squad in the infantry of the United States Army. A squad consists of eight men, and Private Gibson is the only Alabamian in this squad, which again brings this state to the front. To be chosen as a member of this squad is a great honor among the soldiers of our army, and such an honor is worked for by every soldier in the United States Army.

Private Gibson first enlisted in the army at Ft. Benning, Ga., on September 24, 1934, and is qualified as an expert rifleman.

The 16th Infantry, of which Private Gibson is a member, sails from the army base, Brooklyn, N. Y., on November 13, for Charleston, S. C., where they will disembark, enroute to Ft. Benning, Ga., for winter training under the new army training program.

Che Percentages Are low Last Year Record

Participating Groups Have Quite A Way To Go Yet To Equal Previous Pledge Quotas

The following tabulation shows the percentages of pledges made to the Community Chest by members of the various supporting organizations up to Wednesday of this week:

Ele. School Faculty	91.3%
D. A. R.	90.9%
High School Faculty	90.5%
A. A. U. W.	86.3%
Alabama College Staff	80.3%
Studiosis Club	80.2%
Girl Scout Council and Leaders	72.7%
Town Council	57.1%
U. D. C.	56.2%
B. P. W.	55.5%
Civic Club	45.4%
Study Club	43.1%
Boy Scout Council and Leaders	42.8%
P. T. A.	40.7%
Am. Legion Auxiliary	14.2%
American Legion
Clerks' Local No. 185

Below is the table of percentages for last year:

Boy Scout Council
Leaders	100%
Ele. School Faculty	100%
Civic Club	97.0%
Alabama College	96.2%
High School Faculty	95.0%
A. A. U. W.	93.2%
B. P. W.	92.6%
Girl Scout Council and Leaders	90.9%
Studiosis	89.5%
Town Council	85.7%
D. A. R.	81.8%
Study Club	81.25%
P. T. A.	79.1%
Am. Legion Auxiliary	71.4%
U. D. C.	68.75%
American Legion	61.5%
Clerks' Local No. 185	26.7%
Average	85.5%

It is obvious in comparing these tables that several of the organizations have quite a way to go yet to bring their number of pledging members up to last year's rating. In fact, all of them are short of last year's record.

No group this year has reached 100 per cent, while three are up into the 90 per cent bracket.

We should not let this matter drag along. Up to date about $1,200 has been pledged. The college group has practically completed its quota. The town group is behind. We hope the figures will show a different story by next week.

CALERA MAN INJURED IN AUTO-TRAIN CRASH

George Anderson, South Calera, was injured in Calera Tuesday night when the car in which he was riding was in collision with a freight train.

The car was completely demolished when it struck the train, about one block from Calera's main street, officers said.

Anderson, first brought to Montevallo for treatment, was transferred to a Clanton hospital.

Will Test Fire Siren Saturday

Chief Gardner announces that the city fire alarm siren is now completely installed and ready for service.

He says a test "blow" of the siren will be made each Saturday at noon in order to make sure that it keeps in proper "tune."

So, when you hear the siren at noon on Saturday don't get alarmed and start hunting for the fire.

But, if you hear it any other time—Scat!

MR. WOOLLEY TRANSFERRED

Mr. Reese Woolley, field agent for the sales tax division of the state department of revenue, has been transferred from Shelby to Jefferson County, the change effective November 1.

Mr. Woolley has been on this job for several months, during which time he has worked in Shelby and adjoining counties. He has gone about his work with diligence and an honest effort to be more than the ordinary hard-boiled tax collector. He has sought to impress people with the merits of the sales tax program, its good purposes, and the things it is designed to foster for the good of the people of Alabama.

His theory has been that people who understand what the sales tax is for will naturally respond in payment with good grace, feeling that they are making an investment in a good cause, rather than merely donating to some useless money-gathering scheme.

His friends in Shelby County appreciate his attitude and his manner of dealing with them in these matters.

The town is employing the street crew this week to fill the expansion joints which were cut in the concrete paving last summer. A composition of tar and cottonseed hulls, according to state specifications, is being used.

SCREW WORMS DAMAGING LIVESTOCK IN COUNTY

Quite a number of farmers have reported that screw worms are doing severe damage to livestock on their farms.

When this trouble is noted, it is necessary to treat the infested animal with Benzol, which can be secured at and drug store.

Pour Benzol into the wound and cover with cotton or cloth for 4 or 5 minutes; repeat this treatment and use sharp pointed instrument to remove dead worms. Cover the wound with pine tar.

Be careful about injuries to livestock or dehorning and castrating—W. M. Clark, Assistant County Agent.

All-Day Meeting

The Spring Creek ladies had an all-day meeting in the pretty home of Mrs. Cary October 23, for the purpose of making a studio couch. Mrs. Herbie Ingram was the member making the couch. The meeting opened at nine o'clock with Miss Cotney directing the work and there was plenty of it for everybody!

The house was very pretty with vases of fall flowers and pretty leaves in the right places. As it was the Halloween season, the predominating colors were orange and black.

At noon a beautiful lunch was served out on the nice back porch which was exactly like eating outdoors. Pretty favors of cats and pumpkins were given the ladies and two visitors.

Work was resumed at one o'clock and continued to two-thirty, when a business meeting was held. Old and new business was discussed and the next place of meeting was announced to be in the home of Mrs. Robert Frost. No program was prepared for the afternoon but a very interesting feature was roll call answered by each member tracing her family tree. Mrs. L. E. Graves and Mrs. Roland Lee won applause for their very interesting family trees. A social hour followed and the hostess passed stick candy which was enjoyed as the ladies played and sang in groups of "cats" and "pumpkins" divided by the favors.

Work was resumed again and lasted until four o'clock, when the ladies left for home with thanks to Mrs. Cary for an enjoyable day, even though it was a very busy one.

Home Demonstration Club

The Spring Creek Home Demonstration Club ladies were sponsors of a Halloween party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frost Friday night. Guests were dressed in various costumes and were met at the steps by howling and groaning ghosts, witches and spooks of all kinds. Low moans were heard all over the house, both up and down stairs. The only lights were dim lamps throughout the house and ghosts and witches reached from every corner to catch all who came by them. Fun was furnished by fortune telling, mystic fire, Dutch doll, "Old Mr. Brown is Dead," handshaking with a famous ghost, and a ghost story.

During the last hour the crowd unmasked and gathered on the lawn in the moonlight and sang jolly songs and enjoyed peanuts and gingerbread. The fifty guests declared they had a "howling" good time and that it was easy to believe in spooks.

More Attention to Literature Of The South and Alabama Is Favored in Studies

Suggestions made by teachers as to desirable modifications of the work of the Montevallo High School:

(a) More attention should be given to literature of Alabama and the South.

(b) More attention should be given to current literature.

(c) More creative literary work.

(d) Literature should be selected on basis of meeting definite needs.

(e) More correlation of related arts with literature.

(f) Speaking and writing should be taught in a functional way.

(g) Correlation of English with other fields.

(h) Study of movies and radio.

(i) More attention should be given to dramatization.

(j) Circulating library for adults.

(k) Social science teaching should be based on the consideration of modern social problems. Social studies taught in this way will be more functional but not so logically organized, nor will all of the subject matter now found in adopted texts be covered. The same approach is desirable in science and mathematics.

(l) Science courses in the senior high school should be much more functional in approach, correlated to a larger extent with other fields and especially the social implications should be stressed.

(m) More attention should be given to guidance.

(n) More attention should be given to the development of responsibility and self-confidence.

(o) More attention should be given to certain social habits, cooperation, respect for right of others, etc.

(p) More attention should be given to student participation in government.

(q) Provision should be made for more definite experience in area of home living for both boys and girls throughout all grades of high school. Homemaking education, specialized in type, and designed for those who will go to college, should be provided as elective for girls. Adaptations of such courses should be provided for those who will attend college and for those entering business or professional pursuits. Laboratory space should be made available so that individual interest may be taken care of. Better correlation of home economics with other phases of education and with home conditions should be assured.

(r) Cooperative arrangements should be provided with business and industry by which high school students may secure vocational education on the job.

(s) More provision should be made for try-out courses of vocational nature.

(t) More detailed study should be made of the actual needs of the individuals composing the student body.

(u) Faculty-wide, cooperative study of the nature of adolescence through the case-study methods should be inaugurated similar to those now done by student teachers.

(v) School marks as an incentive to work should be gradually eliminated and a better system of reporting and recording child growth should be worked out.

(w) Provision should be made by which, for at least one period a day, every pupil could pursue under guidance his or her special interest.

Huntingdon Observes "Starvation Dinner"

Montgomery, Ala. — With newspapers for tablecloths, Huntingdon College students last night abandoned their search for knowledge to celebrate their annual "Starvation Dinner" in the college dining room.

The wholesome, if not elegant, menu consumed by the pursuers of wisdom consisted of meat loaf, brown-eyed peas, onions, popcorn balls, and coffee without cream.

Decorations in the form of vivid black and yellow witches, goblins, and pumpkins emphasized the gaiety of the occasion.

Climax of the program was a grand march with the presentation of a gift to the person wearing the "bum-est" costume.

The affair is sponsored annually by the college Y. W. C. A., and the difference in the cost of this meal and that of a regular dinner will go into its treasury.

GIRL SCOUTS

A group of Girl Scouts had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Roosevelt Sunday at the Municipal Auditorium in Birmingham. Mrs. Pauline Rogan, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, and Mrs. Glennie Nybeck took their cars. The girls that went were Una Faye Davis, Joyce Baker, Joyce Farlow, Betty Cain, Dorothy Conway, Julia Rogan, Sarah Henry Reynolds, Sara Barr, Tootsie Clayton, Frances Nybeck, Mary Jean Kennerly, Peggy Davis, and Pat Weems.

Mrs. Roosevelt is the honorary president of Girl Scouts. All of the Girl Scouts got to hear her for twenty-five cents. They sat together on the left side of the main floor of the auditorium. Two of the Montevallo girls had the pleasure of shaking hands with Mrs. Roosevelt. They were all disappointed that she didn't sign any autographs but they felt that she was gracious in staying long enough to shake hands with some of them. The girls greatly enjoyed Mrs. Roosevelt's talk on peace.

Girl Scouts will also get to hear Fritz Kriesler, November 11 at the Municipal Auditorium for twenty-five cents.

Thirty-five Montevallo Girl Scouts and leaders attended church services in a body Sunday morning to inaugurate Girl Scout Week.

Other activities are planned to run throughout the week.

The Girl Scouts met for the third time this season at the Little House, Tuesday after school.

They gathered around the fire and talked about various kinds of business with Mrs. Vaughan who was acting leader for this week. Three patrol leaders were elected. They were Peggy Davis, Sara Henry Reynolds, and Mary Jean Kennerly. The scribe was reelected for this year.

A bicycle hike for Saturday is being planned. They hope to go out on the Spring Creek Road and meet some Girl Scouts from Calera. The girls who aren't going on bicycles are going to hike to another place.

Friday, October 27, sixteen girls from Troop 2 spent the night at the Little House. We played games and sang songs until time for the eclipse of the moon. After we had seen the eclipse, Mrs. Vaughan told us there was a treasure hidden somewhere around the house. So off we scurried and looked, and looked, but couldn't find anything but a garbage can. We gave up and Mrs. Vaughan took the "garbage can" into the house. We discovered it was a freezer of ice cream. Next she brought in a big chocolate cake. We all enjoyed them very much.

The sixteen members present were Una Faye Davis, Betty Gaddy, Betty Gravlee, Doris Ann Clemmons, Mildred Wooten, Marjorie Shores, Betty Pendleton, Alice Creel, Dorothy Thomas, Zenoba McCulley, Joyce Baker, Joyce Farlow, Dorothy Conway, and Kathleen Bridges. Mrs. Vaughan and our lieutenants, Misses Jane and Jean Allen, made seventeen.

Record Number of Disasters Reported by Red Cross for Year

The American Red Cross gave emergency relief and rehabilitation aid to 130,000 sufferers of 157 disasters in the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30, according to a report submitted by DeWitt Smith, newly appointed director of the Red Cross disaster relief service.

Mr. Smith said the number of disaster operations exceeded that of any previous year, with cloudbursts, epidemics, fires, windstorms, snowslides, and other catastrophes striking in 43 states and the territory of Alaska. Red Cross disaster relief expenditures totaled $2,276,109 for the year.

"Since its founding in 1881 the Red Cross has aided victims of 2,495 disasters here and abroad, expending $143,000,000 for rescue, food, clothing, shelter, medical and nursing aid and the permanent rehabilitation of families unable to re-establish themselves," Mr. Smith said.

Last year the Red Cross helped 41,000 enlisted men or their families through its workers stationed at Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard Stations and through Red Cross chapters from coast to coast. Recent Congressional action to increase the United States armed forces has necessitated expansion of this vital service to enlisted men by the Red Cross.

A HELPING HAND FOR ALL

American Red Cross Roll Call Poster for 1939.

make 157,000 surgical dressings.
On September 2, the American Red Cross announced it was organizing to meet repatriating American citizens at seaport cities through chapter reception committees. Citizens without resources were given temporary shelter, and aided to re-settle in their former homes or work.

Between September 5 and 7, the American Red Cross cabled $20,000 through the State Department to help American survivors of the "Athenia," who had been taken into Irish and Scotch ports.

Red Cross chapters were instructed to accept funds for the purchase of supplies for impartial distribution and funds for purchase of supplies for a designated country to be expended through the Red Cross society of that nation.

"The Red Cross is not interested in the origins of the present conflict," Chairman Davis declared following his cabled offer of assistance to the International Red Cross Committee. "As a part of the great International Red Cross it is our duty to do what we can to aid the helpless civilians who will suffer during the hostilities."

Quick War Relief Given by Red Cross

Shipwrecked U. S. Citizens, Wounded Poles, Refugees,
Repatriates Aided

Washington.—The American Red Cross moved quickly at the onset of hostilities in Europe to organize relief for war sufferers and give aid to American citizens stranded in danger zones or rescued from sea-warfare catastrophe.

Red Cross officials pointed out that following contact of German-Polish forces on September 1, the organization made available medical relief for civilians and armies of Poland; provided aid for Americans repatriating from Europe as they landed in the United States ports; granted medical and maintenance assistance to American survivors of the "Athenia," first sea casualty of the war; gave financial aid to the American Hospital in Paris, France, and developed a comprehensive communications system to allay the fears of distraught relatives.

Norman H. Davis, chairman, cabled the International Red Cross
Committee in Geneva on September 1 asking what relief would be needed from the American Red Cross. In a first step in consolidating Red Cross relief forces throughout the nation, 3,700 Red Cross chapters were authorized to begin producing refugee garments and to accept contributions for war relief.

A quick response from the Polish
Red Cross to Chairman Davis' cable to the International Committee resulted in an American Red Cross appropriation of $50,000 for the purchase of 45 items of medicines, and for army blankets and a quantity of large hospital tents capable of housing 50 stretcher cases each.

A grant of $25,000 was also made to the American Hospital in Paris to evacuate American patients from the hospital and to purchase in the United States a 100 bed hospital unit for shipment to the American organization, it was said.

To meet needs which were thought likely to result from bombardment of rural villages and the passage of hostile armies, the Red Cross called upon 21 of its large city chapters to roll surgical dressings of a special new type for European warfare injuries. More than 500,000 yards of gauze were purchased and 40,000 pounds of cotton, enough to
